■ High Risk Areas

1. Clause 1 makes the arbitrator's decision 'final and binding'. While arbitration is common, the lack of any appeal mechanism or review process poses significant risk. A party could be unfairly bound by a potentially biased or erroneous decision with no recourse.
2. Clause 3 is a highly problematic jurisdiction clause. Restricting jurisdiction to only Kanpur courts significantly limits one party's options if a dispute arises, especially if one party is based far from Kanpur. This is unfair and could be challenged.

■ Recommendations

■ Moderate Risk Document: This document has some areas of concern. Review yellow highlighted sections carefully and consider legal consultation for red areas.
